

Telegrams
BIBLOS, LONDON

SOHO SQUARE

LONDON, W.

22nd Jan. 1902.

Dear Sir.

I am very much obliged to you for the information you so kindly sent me in answer to my letter.

It is most necessary that the new edition of Kinship & Marriage should be published as soon as possible, so that I should be very glad of any notes of yours at your earliest opportunity. If you could send me only a few at a time this would not matter, at all events, everything should be in my hands by the end of February at the latest.

Any notes which supported Robertson Smith's arguments, or pointed out errors would be more useful than any record of different views, & I have throughout acted upon this principle. I might mention that I propose to remove all the shorter notes from the end of the book to the foot of the page, thus bringing the work into conformity with the Religion of the Semites.

As regards the form of acknowledgment, it has been thought desirable to have only Robertson Smith's name on the title-page. There will be a preface signed by myself, & in it ~~the~~ due prominence will be given to all those scholars who have contributed notes or assisted me to clear up difficulties.

Thanking you again for your kind help, & looking forward to the early receipt of your notes.

Believe me
yours very truly
(P.T.O.) Stanley A. Cook

Dr. Black begs me to thank you for your message & wishes
he kindly remembered to you.

POST OFFICE

POST OFFICE

SOHO SQUARE
LONDON W
22nd Jan. 1850

My dear Sir,
I have the pleasure to inform you that the manuscript of your paper has been received and is now in the hands of the printer. I shall be glad to send you a copy of the first number of the journal as soon as it is published.
I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. Black

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. Black